

STUDENT DESIGNER SHOWCASE: SEASON 2

Submit to Dr. Boggs or email to uscfashionboardpr@gmail.com

The Student Designer Showcase is a part of Fashion Board at USC's annual USC Fashion Week. This year USC Fashion Week will be held on April 8-12 and is composed of a kick off event, two fashion shows, a symposium and a philanthropic event. If selected, student designers will show 5 - 6 original looks. Models, hair, make-up and venue will all be provided by the Fashion Board

NO PRIOR EXPERIENCE IS NECESSARY TO ENTER

How long have you been designing? Have you ever presented a collection?

How long have you been involved with fashion? In what aspects have you been involved?

Who is your favorite designer/artist and why?

What inspires you? For the collection you will present, what is your inspiration?

Attach sketches and/or photographs of your work. Your work should depict at least three looks. We encourage the submission of both sketches and photographs but please make sure to have one or the other.
